Mar. 3, 1928.

Mr. William Armstead Collier,
C/o Collier & Collier,
Memphis, Tenn.

Dear Mr. Collier:

I have yours of March 1st, and I must beg your pardon for not answering your former letter in detail, but I have had so many things to come up that were pressing that this letter has remained in my unanswered file.

The letter is still before me; also a letter from Mr. J. Marshall Booker, 60 Broad St., New York City, and Mr. Alec Greene, 83 Maiden Lane. My grandmother was a Greene, and my great-grandmother was a Booker. I am working up all ends of this family record as best I can.

I will do my best to answer your letter in detail the coming week.

Suppose you send me the copy of the book you have, "The Virginia Cousins", having it registered and I will send stamps to cover the cost of same, as it will perhaps aid me in giving you the information you wish.

Although we have gotten the information from every source, including the information my son secured in Europe on a couple of trips there in the past.

He visited the burial place of Robert Collier at Stone Staffordshire, England, when he was over there in 1925; but he could not find out very much. He came across a man by the name of Collier living at this place, but they seemed to know less than we do here.

Respectfully yours,
